

CE REQUIREMENT FOR RTs WITH A TENNESSEE X-RAY LICENSE

The Tennessee Medical and Osteopathic Boards now require that 2 of the required 20 biennial Continuing Education (CE) credits pertain to appropriate Tennessee Board Rules, Ethics, Sexual boundaries, and other related topics as stated in the medical rules 0880-5-.09. These hours must also include content related to the ARRT Standards of Ethics for fully certified (RT) licensees. You can find a copy of the ruling on page 10 of the Medical Rules Governing X-Ray Operators thru a state link at www.x-raynews.com listed under the menu TN X-ray License.

All RTs who work in a Physician's Office in Tennessee must obtain a state x-ray license, and must obtain these two special CE credits. The 24 credits earned for ARRT do suffice for regular state CE requirements, but if the 24 credits do not include at least 2 of these special credits, RTs must obtain these credits for state license renewal.

The new CE requirement is a Tennessee law. The R.T. licensed in Tennessee must abide by the state rules and regulations. Non-compliance with the state's rules and regulations may be viewed as a violation of the ARRT Standards of Ethics. (This wording approved by ARRT)

X-Ray News now provides the ordering choices below for the 2 special CE credits. If you'd like to order, the Order Form is on the back or you can order online at www.x-raynews.com. Not only do we provide these credits but we will keep you updated regarding the TN x-ray rules.
